INTRODUCTION

The Bermuda National Bibliography records the publishing activity of Bermuda and provides a reflection of the social, economic and cultural endeavours of this country. The bulk of these materials are obtained through Legal Deposit which allows us to maintain a permanent record of an important aspect of the Island's cultural heritage.

Legal Deposit in Bermuda

The first Legal Deposit legislation in Bermuda was The Printed Publication Act, 1971, which only covered print materials. This Act was amended by The Legal Deposit Act, 2008 which greatly broadened the scope covered.

The Legal Deposit Act, 2008, which repeals Section 5 of the Printed Publications Act 1971, sets out the requirements regarding the deposit of new Bermuda publications in the Bermuda National Library. A small section is reproduced below:

"Delivery of copies of publications

- 3 (1) This section applies to—
- (a) a person who publishes a publication in Bermuda; and
 - (b) a person who is resident in Bermuda, or whose principal place of business is in Bermuda, and who publishes, or commissions the publishing of, a publication outside Bermuda for distribution or making available in Bermuda.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), every person who publishes a publication shall within seven days after the date of publishing it deliver a copy of the publication, at their own expense, to the Head Librarian for deposit in the Bermuda National Library.
- (3) The copy shall be delivered in the medium in which it is published, unless another medium is prescribed."

General Selection Criteria

Included are works about Bermuda and Bermudians, published both locally and abroad, works published in Bermuda on other subjects, and works published abroad by Bermudians. Emphasis is on items readily available through normal book suppliers or through the author or publisher. However, Bermuda has a small and unique publishing environment so unpublished and privately-printed titles are often deposited with the Bermuda National Library. These are included in the Bibliography.

Media Covered

The Bibliography covers monographs, periodical publications, published and unpublished Government and other reports, audio-visual materials, and items in other formats when applicable. Some theses are included; particularly those covering subjects significant to Bermuda.

Many Bermuda Government documents are only made available online as PDFs. These and other electronic documents are not included in the Bermuda National Bibliography but they are collected by the Bermuda National Library whenever possible. Some Government Departments print out their documents specifically for deposit at the Bermuda National Library. These printed copies are catalogued and included in the Bibliography.

Fiction published outside Bermuda with a Bermuda setting is not usually included unless the author has a local connection. These items may form a part of the general circulation collection but are not considered to be a part of the Bermudiana Collection so do not appear in the Bibliography.

Posters, tourist and promotional fliers, event programmes and other ephemera are not usually included in the Bibliography even though representative examples of these kinds of publications may be collected by the Library.

Cataloguing Codes and Standards of Description

The list is arranged according to the 23rd edition of the Dewey Decimal Classification. New materials are catalogued according to the provisions of Resource Description & Access (RDA). Records for continuing publications originally created prior to 2014 follow the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules, Second edition, 2002 revision (updated 2003-2005).

Subject headings are derived from an in-house format for local authority records which is based on the Sears List of Subject Headings and the LC Name Authority File.

Occasionally notes have been left out or abbreviated. Full bibliographic records (including MARC format) can be viewed in the online catalogue via the Bermuda National Library's website at www.bnl.bm.

"Is Jesus relevant to me today? There are too many questions and doubts to believe in a person who lived over 2000 years ago. Do I have to believe in Jesus? Can't I simply believe in God? Besides, why do I need a Savior? I'm doing well on my own. These are very real and fair questions many have today regarding the person of Jesus Christ and what makes Him special. Using the inspired Word of God, the Bible, discover through a 31-day journey the answers to these questions, including the focal one: Is Jesus really the be all and end all?" – Amazon.com.

Interpretations of love/ by Jane Campbell. – London : riverrun, 2024.

"It's the week of Dr. Agnes Stacey's only daughter's wedding, and each of the eleven attendees of the small family gathering is bringing their own simmering tensions to the event. Agnes's uncle, Professor Malcolm Miller, has harbored a family secret since her parents-his sister and brother-in-law-died in a car crash when she was a young girl. Dr. Joseph Bradshaw, who distantly married into the family, has nursed a secret obsession with Agnes since his brief stint as her therapist. Agnes herself will be returning to her ex-husband's home for the first time, just as she's trying to extricate herself from a potent love affair. Each of them has the tools to analyze the love lives of others, yet find themselves unable to recognize the love in their own lives. And though they've each muddled through painful years in emotional isolation, only Malcolm knows that the origins of their thwarted attachments all lie in the same English seaside town. Where better to lay bare the failures and secrets of one's advancing age than at an intimate celebration of love? In this utterly involving novel, Campbell parses the fraught inner lives of ordinary people doing their best to process the aftershocks of war, the parenting they do and don't receive, and the many different forms love can take in one family.--Provided by publisher.

"World War II ends - the Cold War begins. Incredibly, Bermuda's geopolitical importance increases. Marauding Nazi U-boats are replaced by Soviet nuclear submarines whose missiles threaten the US East Coast. Bermuda becomes the most important and secret early warning post in the world, using a new technology called SOFAR - Sound Fixing and Ranging. The Russians will do anything to find out what the Americans are up to in Bermuda, including sending their assassins to "persuade" wayward local collaborators. The intricate conflict of spy versus spy, stretching from California, to London, and Moscow, pivots around a Bermuda emerging from its own era of segregations. The story ultimately intersects with the most terrifying chapter of the Cold War - the Cuban Missile Crisis."--Back cover.

"In the heart of an ordinary neighborhood, young Rodney Smith, Jr. stumbles upon a simple situation that would forever change the trajectory of his life: an elderly man struggling to mow his lawn. This wasn't just about mowing grass; it was the seed of an idea that would grow into a worldwide movement. As readers flip through the vibrant pages of 'One Lawn at a Time,' they journey with Rodney as he rides from one home to another, spreading not just acts of service, but messages of hope, unity, and community. From single mothers to valiant veterans, each page tells a unique story of kindness, resilience, and the profound impact of caring hands."--Back cover.
